Your Project Proposal

Write a brief, clear statement of project and its goals: _____

Attach to this sheet a two-to-four page project proposal. Think of it as a business plan, in which you tell evaluators what your goal is and how you will get there. Include the following required information in clearly marked sections:

1. Benefits or importance of project (Why do you want to do this project?)
2. Procedures you will use to complete your project (How are you going to do it?)
3. Resources/materials you will use to complete your project.
4. Mentors you will look to for guidance, if applicable. (You must ask for agreement and note in proposal)
5. Conclusion or results you expect.
6. How your work on this project relates to Herbert Hoover's expertise as an organizer and leader. (Read about Herbert Hoover before you write this section.):
7. How did you find out about this program?
